AWARD FOR LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT

JOHN K. MOTT, FAIA

Born and raised at Fort Smith, Arkansas, architect John Mott has been a trusted leader in historic preservation for more than 50 years. After graduating from the University of Arkansas and serving as a naval officer, Mott worked for his father's architecture firm in Fort Smith, today known as MAHG Architecture, before relocating to Washington, DC. He went on to become Director of Preservation at John Milner Associates, now MTFA Architecture. He has led the MTFA Design + Preservation team on more than 200 restoration and adaptive reuse projects across the country. His notable Arkansas projects include Old Main and Vol Walker Hall at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, the Drennen-Scott and Willhaf houses at Van Buren, and the Clayton House at Fort Smith. For his prolific work in historic preservation and his enthusiasm and willingness to share his expertise with younger generations, Preserve Arkansas is pleased to recognize John Mott with the 2022 Parker Westbrook Award for Lifetime Achievement!
