

ARKANSAS'S MOST ENDANGERED
PLACES
2019 NOMINATION FORM

Each year historic properties throughout Arkansas are threatened by demolition or neglect. Collectively, these properties contribute to the quality of life we enjoy and shape the daily experiences of living in small towns, large cities, and rural areas across the state. It is an understatement to say that our historic resources help to paint a distinct Arkansas portrait, and it is certainly no overstatement to conclude that their loss leaves large gaps in that canvas.

Preserve Arkansas has maintained a Most Endangered Places List since 1999. By bringing attention to threatened buildings, sites, and places in Arkansas, we have raised awareness in communities across the state and contributed to several success stories. This nomination form is your chance to initiate your own story of success.

Properties selected for the Most Endangered Places List will be announced in May during Arkansas Heritage Month and National Preservation Month.
